HAVE DREAMS is a non-profit resource organization providing an array of programs and services for children and families impacted by autism. As a one-of-kind haven of hope, Have Dreams provides innovative, tailored programs for social and life skill development, and expert, compassionate understanding of the challenges children and families face - and the dreams that are within reach.

The proceeds of this event will help us to continue to provide state-of-the-art services to Chicago area children and families challenged by autism.
